

ECLIPSE ENQUIRER

Team News

Students from Washburn Rural Middle School will be reciting poems at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Poetry Night on Wednesday, Jan. 11, 2012 at 6:30 PM in the Wymore Auditorium at Westar Energy Corp. located at 818 Kansas Ave.

This is a fun evening and the students do a wonderful job. You are certainly welcome to attend to support these students!

Elementary, Middle and H.S. students from around the county will compete. All winners will be honored at TPAC on Friday Jan. 13. Eclipse students who will be presenting are Avery Munns and Krystal Cheung.

Volunteer needed- Mrs. Walters is looking for a volunteer to help her detangle fishing lines on fishing poles. Please contact her if you are able to help.

Reading Plus

Mrs. Hill

Math

Ms. Mainz

Language Arts

Mrs. Williams

The figurative language test will be Friday. This week we will cover metaphors, personification, onomatopoeia, hyperbole, and analogy. Mrs. Loy will be teaching 4th and 5th hours, but the lessons will be the same for all classes. Please feel free to communicate with me at willich1@usd437.net. Mrs. Loy's email is lovana@usd437.net.

Important dates

January 11-13 - EW Math

January 11 - Early Release

January 13 - Language Arts Test

January 16 - No School-MLK Day

January 24 - Science Test

January 27 - Ch 5 KS Hist Test

February 15 & 16 - Parent-Teacher Conferences

Student Staff

Submitted by LeTaya Frazier

Social Studies

Mr. McFarland

This week in Social Studies we will begin our study of Kansas statehood, the Civil War, and other material contained in Chapter 5 of our book.

The test over this material is tentatively scheduled for Friday, January 27th.

Science

Mrs. Walters

Reports on the Car Project are due on Wednesday. Please stay after school on Tuesday if you need more help. I will be here from 3-4:00. We are working on Simple Machines at this time. The test will most likely be on 1/24. Students will build catapults for a couple of days after the test.

Study Hall Tuesday: Mrs. Walter's room